Recommended Itinerary

Day 1 Arrival Cardiff – Hay-on-Wye

Upon arrival Cardiff Airport, pick up car rental and depart Cardiff heading north through the beautiful Brecon Beacons National Park to reach the quaint and popular town of Hay-on-Wye. Proving that the pen is indeed mightier than the sword, Hay, once a scene of English-Welsh conflict, has metamorphosed into a town devoted to the written word. The narrow streets of this bookworm's nirvana are literally lined with books. Some of the town's 36 bookshops have 'honesty' shelves outside where you pick a book and leave your money in the slot. In addition to the bookstores, there are also many antique stores and a fascinating craft centre to explore. Enjoy afternoon tea in one of Hay's many tea-rooms.

Overnight at Hay-on-Wye

Recommended Hotel: The Swan at Hay Hotel (3*)

Day 2 Hay-on-Wye - Llangollen

Venture further north through the gently rolling countryside of Mid Wales until you reach the home of the International Musical Eisteddfod - Llangollen. Explore this pretty town and then visit Plas Newydd - the half-timbered, 18th century home of the legendary Ladies of Llangollen and learn what it was about these famous ladies that attracted all the great literary and political giants of their day to visit them. From Llangollen wharf, embark on a 45-minute horse drawn boat trip travelling upstream. Nearby is the spectacular Pontcysyllte Aqueduct. This engineering masterpiece was constructed in 1805 by Thomas Telford and rises 121 feet above the rushing waters of the River Dee.

Overnight at Llangollen

Recommended Hotel: Tyn Y Wern (5*)

Day 3 Llangollen – Pen y Bryn Tea-rooms - Conwy

The medieval walled town of Conwy holds many surprises for the visitor. You will have an opportunity this morning to 'Walk the Walls' - medieval walls which encompass the town. Or you may want to visit the majestic 13th century Castle built by King Edward I and now a World heritage Site. Alternatively, discover the architectural gem Plas Mawr which captures a rare insight into the daily lives and habits of the Tudor Gentry. Save some film in your cameras for an afternoon of visual delight as you embark on a scenic drive through the Snowdonia National Park visiting the most popular village of Betws y Coed, traversing the Llanberis Pass - starting point for the ascent of Mount Snowdon to the legendary village of Beddgelert. Finally, as a complete contrast exploring on the southern edge of the National Park, the unique fantasy Italianate village of Portmeirion. Here the TV series 'The Prisoner' was made in the 60's.

Overnight at Conwy

Recommended Hotel: Quay Hotel & Spa (4*)

Day 4 Conwy - Aberystwyth

(Packed lunch)

Driving south this morning, your first visit will take you to Aberystwyth on the west coast to visit the National Library of Wales which houses the oldest existing manuscripts in the Welsh language and other great literary treasures. Your journey continues to the south coast and the picturesque & most photographed harbour, Tenby. There's time to explore the cobbled streets of this pretty medieval town before you join the 'Ghost Tour' around Tenby's walled town.

Overnight at Aberystwyth

Recommended Hotel: Penybont (4*)

Day 5 Aberystwyth - Cardiff

An early return to Cardiff via Laugharne to visit The Boathouse where Wales' most famous literary son, Dylan Thomas wrote his poems and plays. Return to Cardiff.

Overnight at Cardiff

Recommended Hotel : Hilton Cardiff (5*)

Day 6 Depart Cardiff

Return car at Cardiff airport and check in for your returning flight.
