Hobart Information

Tasmania's capital has been pressed into shape by nature.

The city is framed by the rugged figure of kunanyi / Mount Wellington and the flow of the wide River Derwent, with wilderness lingering nearby – just beyond the mountain.

Beyond mountain and river, it's cultural and dining experiences that thrive in Australia's second-oldest city. The underground Museum of Old and New Art, aka Mona, looms large in global art circles and on the itineraries of scores of travellers.

The famed Salamanca Market has been a Saturday tradition for more than 50 years, and the city's food scene is dynamic, with cafes, restaurants and bars transforming Tasmania's famously fresh produce into refined expressions of place and season.

See Hobart from the water, or on foot around the waterfront, or even from the saddle of a bike on a mountain descent. Taste wine at urban wineries, and when the day is almost done, sip a whisky beside a dinosaur fossil, or settle into a cosy bar inside the walls of a 19th-century hospital.

1.	1 Day Bruny Island – operated by Bruny Island Cruises Join your tour at the Pennicott Wilderness Journeys office, Dockhead Building, Franklin Wharf (located next to Elizabeth Street Pier and Constitution Dock Lifting Bridge). Take a full day tour from Hobart and spend a day on Bruny Island including guided return bus tour, ferry crossing, three hour Wilderness Cruise, morning tea and lunch. Robert Pennicott's multi-award winning wilderness and wildlife cruise takes you along Bruny Island's rugged coast beneath some of Australia's highest sea cliffs to enter deep sea caves and join in the search for wildlife such as seals, dolphins and birds of prey. The custom built boats are ideal for viewing the spectacular coastline and wildlife with covered open-aired seating providing an excellent all round view and connection with the environment.	239	176
2.	Port Arthur and Tassie Devils – operated by Tours Tasmania Spend the morning walking along 300 metre high clifftops, pausing at majestic lookouts to watch giant waves crash against dolerite spires. Visit Pirates Bay, Waterfall Bay, Tasman Arch and the famous Devil's Kitchen, ticking all the best views off the list. Tasmanian Devils are carnivorous marsupials that can only be found in Tasmania. They look like a small bear and are just as feisty, with one of the most powerful bites in the animal kingdom. In this action-packed tour that features a trip to the Tasmanian Devil Unzoo, you'll get up close and personal with these iconic critters in a snarling feeding frenzy! You can also feed wallabies by hand, attend a Birds of the Bush presentation and learn about local wildlife from the Unzoo's passionate staff, before heading off to explore the Port Arthur Historic Site. Port Arthur is up next, where impeccably preserved ruins offer a chilling glimpse of life as a Tasmanian convict. Spend four hours exploring this World Heritage open air museum, including a complimentary harbour cruise around the Isle of the Dead and fascinating site talks. Our last stop is the unmissable Richmond, a historic village filled with quaint stone buildings, ye olde lolly shops and Australia's oldest bridge! This sandstone beauty was built by convicts and is thought to be haunted. You be the judge. A devilishly good day out. Highlights: Visit Port Arthur Historic Site (2.5 hours), Explore the Tasmanian Devil Unzoo, Experience the ferocious action of a Tasmanian Devil feeding! Photograph spectacular views from the Waterfall Bay Cliff Top Walk (easy grade 2km), See the Tasman National Park highlights – Devils Kitchen and Tasman Arch, Enjoy the stories from Pirates Bay Lookout, Eaglehawk Neck and The "Dogline", Visit historic Richmond Village.	141	71
