Groups set off at regular intervals under the attentive supervision of a dedicated starter. Throughout the course, every detail is designed to offer the highest level of comfort and excellence: gourmet delicacies by Michelin-starred chef Heinz Beck and refreshing drinks, will be available along the fairway. Fresh balls and tees will always be at hand, as well as personalized course maps. For those who do not play golf, the journey remains no less extraordinary—immersed in the beauty of the Italian landscape, with curated experiences in art, culture, and moments of true well-being. After each round, relaxation continues in the elegant club house. Once back on the train, surrender to the unhurried rhythm of La Dolce Vita Orient Express, as the Italian landscape unfolds beyond the window—turning every moment into pure poetry.

Day 1

Your exclusive journey begins at Marco Simone Golf & Country Club, just outside Rome. This iconic course ranks among Europe's most prestigious golfing destinations—a place where sport, elegance, and nature converge in perfect harmony. After your round, a private transfer will escort you to the sophisticated La Dolce Vita Lounge inside Rome's Ostiense station. Once aboard, your journey enters a new realm: relaxed, refined, and timeless. The evening begins with a dinner by Michelin-starred chef Heinz Beck, who presents a contemporary interpretation of Italy's rich culinary heritage, served in the opulent Restaurant Car. Later, the Bar Car comes alive with live music and masterfully crafted cocktails.

Day 2

The second day begins as dawn bathes the southern Italian landscape in golden light, with the train gliding gracefully toward Apulia. On board, a breakfast of understated luxury awaits. Your destination is the San Domenico Golf Club in Fasano, a spectacular links-style course overlooking the Adriatic Sea. Here, the game unfolds in perfect rhythm with the Mediterranean surroundings. Each hole a fusion of sport, coastal charm, and natural beauty. After a rewarding day on the green, you'll return to the refined comfort of La Dolce Vita Orient Express. The evening begins with a gourmet dinner, where distinctive flavors and handpicked wines come together in seamless accord. As night falls, the Bar Car stirs to life with live music and intimate conversation. The train glides onward into the heart of the Italian South, wrapping you in the timeless magic of the journey and the soulful warmth of discovery.

Day 3

Your third day unfolds in the heart of authentic Tuscany, at the prestigious The Club at Castiglion del Bosco. Set amid the rolling hills of the UNESCO-listed Val d'Orcia, this private course meanders through manicured vineyards, ancient woodlands, and sweeping vistas. The course strikes a masterful balance between sporting challenge and full immersion in the Tuscan countryside. Following your round, you'll return to the refined comfort of La Dolce Vita Orient Express. The evening begins with a dinner by three-Michelin-starred chef Heinz Beck, who brings a contemporary touch to the authentic flavors of Tuscan tradition. As night descends, the Bar Car glows with soft light and vibrant life—cocktails, live music, and warm conversation filling the air.

Day 4

The final stop takes you into the heart of Italy at Antognolla Golf Club, one of the most scenic and evocative course in Italy. This course is a masterpiece of natural harmony and technical design. Playing here means concluding the journey just as it began, with elegance, intensity, and awe. After your final round, your return to the train becomes a special moment, pampered by the impeccable service and refined atmosphere of La Dolce Vita Orient Express. A farewell toast among new friends, the gentle rhythm of the carriages through the Umbrian landscape, and the warm glow of the sunset will accompany your return to Rome.

SOUTHERN ESSENCE: THE GOLF EXPERIENCE - € 2,890.00 PP

Designed for those who appreciate excellence both in play and in experience, this offer includes:

- Luxury private transfers between the arrival railway station, each Golf Club, and post-play excursions
- Four days of golf, with pre-reserved tee times, green fees, and full access to all club facilities.
- Two bespoke post-golf experiences on the second and third days.

Play on the iconic greens of Marco Simone Golf Club in Rome, followed by the coastal beauty of San Domenico Golf in Puglia, where ancient olive trees frame views of the Adriatic Sea. Continue your journey through Tuscany at The Club at Castiglion del Bosco, nestled among vineyards and cypress-lined ridges. Then, conclude at Antognolla Golf in Umbria, amid rolling hills and timeless silence.

On day two, enjoy the greens of San Domenico Golf Club, overlooking the Adriatic sea, before heading to Borgo Egnazia— a miniature world inspired by a typical Apulian village.

Guided by the Maestro di Casa, you'll stroll through stone alleyways and tranquil courtyards, uncovering the unique architecture and atmosphere of the Borgo. Along the way, witness artisans at work, sample bites inspired by ancient masserie feasts, and pause for a private moment in a lantern-lit piazzetta or secluded lemon grove.

The experience ends with a relaxed aperitivo among olive trees, where regional wines and local flavors are served in an atmosphere designed to awaken memory and joy.

On day three, Castiglion del Bosco invites you to discover one of Tuscany's most iconic wines: Brunello di Montalcino. After a round on the estate's private golf club, you'll visit its historic award-winning winery for an introduction to its winemaking tradition. Guided by the estate's wine ambassador, begin with a wine tour through the Sangiovese vineyards to learn the winemaking process and explore Tuscany at its most beauty.

The experience ends in the wine cellar where you'll enjoy signature wines paired with seasonal local bites.
