LA DOLCE VITA ORIENT EXPRESS

Almost 140 years ago, the first luxury Orient Express trains began their legendary journey across Europe. Drawing inspiration from this historic legacy, La Dolce Vita Orient Express invites you to embark on a fascinating journey through Italy in timeless style along eight extraordinary itineraries. The epitome of excellence, the train celebrates the art of Italian living by bringing the beautiful country's design aesthetic, culture and finest food-and-wine traditions to the railway.

In 1883, the "Rome-Express" train connected France to Italy for the first time, originally departing from Calais and Nice to reach Rome. This new route offered travellers the chance to discover the history and wonders of ancient Rome, turning the city into one of the world's most popular stopovers. A beloved capital throughout the history of the Orient Express.

Paying homage to the Italian artistic boom of the 1960s, La Dolce Vita Orient Express is the result of the creative vision of Dimorestudio, an architectural and design studio founded by Emiliano Salci and Britt Moran. Inspired primarily by the great masters of design, including Carlo Scarpa, Gio Ponti and Ignazio Gardella, the train stands out for refined details that explore the marriage between space and time, echoing the works of Lucio Fontana, Agostino Bonalumi and Enrico Castellani.

La Dolce Vita Orient Express is much more than just a train: it's an experience in which hospitality and authentic Italian style come together to create a modern adventure with timeless charm.

The 12 Deluxe cabins, 18 Suite cabins, exclusive La Dolce Vita Suite, dining car and inviting bar offer guests a truly unique and sophisticated experience. Here, beauty and comfort come together to deliver a journey like no other experienced before.
