Keen on getting the inside scoop on what KL's all about? Look no further than this chauffeur driven EV Scooter tour that gets you acquainted with local folks and their favorite grub. Start the day at a local wet market, before going on a culinary exploration of KL's famed hawker stalls. From delicious snacks such as Keropok Lekor & Fried Banana Fritters to famous Malaysian dishes such as Chee Cheong Fan, Nasi Lemak, Roti Canai & Rojak. In between meals, visit important cultural and religious sites to understand why Malaysia is truly a tapestry of cultures. Learn how the different ethnic groups such as the Malays, Chinese and Indians preserve their own heritage, customs, language and beliefs...yet share cross-cultural connections...just like the seams of a tapestry.
