Ride as pillion on this vespa tour that takes you through the tranquil countryside of the outskirts of KL. Experience what local life is truly like in the 'kampungs' (villages)...learning about their customs, beliefs traditions and food. Another highlight of this tour is an informative guided tour of a herb garden. Here you will be given detailed explanations on the health benefits and unique characteristics of some of this region's most interesting plants. Visit a real Malay village house and fruit orchard, sample traditional Malay cuisine and try your hand at making your very own batik painting. End the day with a dip in a refreshing waterfall and a couple of cold ones!
