WAU KAPAL TRADITIONAL SELANGOR KITE

Wau Kapal is a traditional Malay kite, known for its intricate designs and large size. It's shaped like a ship, symbolizing courage and adventure. Tourists should see Wau Kapal for its unique beauty and cultural significance. Witnessing the flying of Wau Kapal is a captivating spectacle that offers a glimpse into Malaysia's rich heritage.

Activity & Elaboration

Hotel Pick-up – Begin your journey with a comfortable ride to Banting.

Gasing Crafting & Playing – Learn the art of making Gasing, a traditional Malay spinning top. Watch artisans carve and balance these tops, then try spinning one yourself—a test of skill and patience deeply rooted in Malay culture.

Wau Kapal Workshop – Discover Selangor's iconic kite, Wau Kapal. Crafted from bamboo and vibrant paper, this kite symbolizes maritime heritage. Learn its history and even fly your own creation!

Banana Chips Cottage Industry – Visit a local workshop to see how crispy banana chips are made. Participate in slicing, frying, and seasoning—a delicious hands-on experience.

Bandar Palace Jagra – Explore this historic palace, a hidden gem showcasing Selangor's royal legacy through architecture and artifacts.

Fruit Farm Visit – Taste fresh tropical fruits like mangosteen, rambutan, or durian (seasonal) at a local farm. Learn about Malaysia's agricultural practices.

Banana Leaf Lunch – Feast on a traditional meal served on a banana leaf, featuring curries, rice, and local delicacies. A flavorful end to your tour!

Return to Hotel – Depart Banting with newfound appreciation for Selangor's crafts and culture.
