Tanjung Sepat, a fishing village in Kuala Langat district in Selangor, Malaysia. People here are mainly in the fishing industry, agriculture and some small businesses. It's about 1 1/2 hours drive from Kuala Lumpur and 45 min drive from KLIA airport. Besides seafood, Tanjung Sepat is famous for its durian, mushroom farms, fish ball factory and Keropok Factory (Malaysia Local Snack) and coffee manu facturers. The tourist attractions here include fishing village traditional culture, orang asli village and some local handicraft. People are simple, enjoying a natural and relaxing time. If you are an artist or art lover, you can easily find a view for sketching and photography.
